Terms and conditions of use

This is the official website of Globomedica AG. By using the webpages, you are accepting our terms and conditions of use and data protection regulations. Please therefore read the following terms and conditions of use and data protection regulations before using the website.

1 Content of the website

Globomedica does not assume any liability for the up-to-dateness, correctness, completeness or quality of the information made available. Liability claims made against Globomedica, which relate to material or non-material damage caused by the use or failure to use the information presented or the use of incorrect or incomplete information, are explicitly excluded provided there is no demonstrably deliberate or grossly negligent fault on the part of Globomedica.

The services provided by Globomedica are exclusively intended for people in Switzerland and the Principality of Liechtenstein. All services are subject to change and are non-binding. Globomedica expressly reserves the right to modify, supplement or delete some pages or the entire website or to suspend publication either temporarily or permanently without prior notice.

2 No recommendation or advice

The information on this website is provided for information purposes only and under no circumstances represents medical advice or a recommendation for medical treatment.

3 References and links

For direct or indirect references to external websites (hyperlinks) which are outside Globomedica's area of responsibility, a liability obligation would only take effect if the author had knowledge of the content and it would be technically feasible and reasonable to prevent the use of any illegal content.

Globomedica hereby expressly declares that at the time the links were created, no illegal content was identified on the pages being linked to. Globomedica has no influence whatsoever on the current and future design, content or ownership of the linked pages. It therefore expressly distances itself from all contents of all linked pages which have been modified after being linked. This statement applies to all links and references published within the scope of our own Internet services as well as to third-party entries made in visitor books, discussion forums, link directories and mailing lists set up by Globomedica, and all other forms of databases in respect of which external write access to the contents is possible. Liability for any illegal, incorrect or incomplete contents and in particular any damage or loss resulting from the use or failure to use information presented in this manner shall lie exclusively with the provider of the website to which a link refers and not the party that has merely published the links in question.

4 Copyright and trademark law

In all publications, Globomedica endeavours to observe the copyrights of the graphics, audio documents, video sequences and texts used, to use graphics, audio documents, video sequences and texts created by itself or to use royalty-free graphics, audio documents, video sequences and texts.

All trademarks and brands named on the website and, if applicable, protected by third parties are subject in full to the terms and conditions of the relevant copyright law and the right of ownership of the respective registered owner. It must not be concluded based on mere mention alone that trademarks are not protected by third-party rights!

Globomedica remains the sole owner of the copyright for published objects created by Globomedica itself. Any reproduction or use of such graphics, audio documents, video sequences and texts in other electronic or printed publications is not permitted without Globomedica's express consent.

5 Use of contact details

Contact details published in the legal notice or in similar sources – such as addresses, phone numbers, fax numbers and e-mail addresses – may not be used by third parties to send information that has not been expressly requested. We expressly reserve the right to take legal action against those sending spam e-mails in violation of this regulation.

6 Legal validity of this disclaimer

This disclaimer is to be regarded as part of the Internet offering used to refer to this page. If parts or individual expressions of this text do not, no longer, or do not fully comply with the valid legal situation, the remaining parts of the document remain unaffected in their content and validity. If a legal relationship between Globomedica and the users of the website is at all tenable, it shall be governed by Swiss law. The exclusive place of jurisdiction is Egg (Switzerland).

Data protection policy

When you use our Internet pages, a variety of personal data is collected. Personal data is data with which you could be personally identified. This data protection statement sets out what data we collect and what we use it for. It also explains how and why this occurs.

This statement applies to the data processing carried out by Globomedica as well as the sites that can be accessed via www.globomedica.ch. Please bear in mind that references may be made to further websites to which different data protection regulations may apply.

This data protection statement is governed by Swiss law. Where applicable, the provisions of the European Union (EU), particularly the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), will be taken into account.

1. Collected data

We adhere to the legal provisions of the applicable data protection laws when collecting and processing personal data. The legal bases are Article 13(1) of the Swiss Data Protection Act (FADP) or, where applicable, Article 6(1), sentence 1(b and f) of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

1.1 General collection on the website

Every time our webpages are accessed, they collect a range of general data. This general data and information is stored in the server's log files. The following data is collected:

- IP address
- Date and time of request
- Time zone difference to the GMT time zone
- Content of the request
- Access status/http status code
- Respective data volume transmitted
- Website from which the request originates
- Browser (incl. language and version)
- Operating system

The use of this general data does not involve assignment to a specific person. The collection of this data is technically necessary in order to display our webpages to you and ensure their stability and security.

1.2 Making contact

When you contact us via the e-mail addresses provided, we always handle the data you transmit to us in compliance with the applicable data protection regulations. The data you have provided shall be used exclusively to process your request.

2. Applications

You can submit your application for a position with us via the e-mail address provided or using the relevant online form. The application documents are handled by us in a strictly confidential manner and solely in regard to filling the position for which you have applied. Without your express consent to the contrary, the (electronic) application dossier will be erased/destroyed once the application process is complete, provided it is not subject to a statutory storage period.

3. Newsletter

You can give your consent to subscribe to our newsletter which we use to let you know about interesting developments. You can use the relevant online form to register. Mandatory details are marked separately; all other details are provided voluntarily. The consent you provide for us to send you the newsletter can be withdrawn at any time, thus unsubscribing you from the newsletter. You can withdraw your consent by clicking on the link provided in every newsletter e-mail or by contacting the person responsible using the details provided in this statement.

Furthermore, we can send you our newsletter as part of a business or contractual relationship with you. You can unsubscribe from the newsletter at any time by clicking on the link provided in every newsletter e-mail or by contacting the person responsible using the details provided in this statement.

4. Inventory data for order processing

Personal data is processed for orders insofar as this is necessary for the contractual relationship. This data is used exclusively to process the contract. In this context, the data is also passed on to third parties insofar as this is necessary for the order processing (for example, in order for goods to be delivered, your name and address need to be passed on to the shipping company). Your personal data will not be forwarded to any third party not involved in the execution of the contract, unless you have given your express consent, or unless there is a statutory basis for this. This data will be deleted once the statutory storage periods have ended, unless you have expressly consented to its further use.

5. Cookies

Our website uses cookies, which are small text files that are stored on your computer and can be accessed again. Cookies enable you to register for our services and personalise the website for you. To do this, our website is supported by cookies, which collect information about your IP address, the time and duration of your visit, the number of times you have visited, your use of forms, your search preferences, your view mode and your favourites settings on our website. The storage period for cookies can vary.

You can prevent cookies from being placed by our website at any time via the relevant settings on the Internet browser in use, thus permanently preventing the placing of cookies. Furthermore, cookies that have already been placed can be deleted at any time via an Internet browser or other software programs. This is possible in all current Internet browsers. If the data subject deactivates the placing of cookies in the Internet browser in use, in some circumstances, not all functions of our website will be fully usable.

6. Third-party plugins

Plugins of different third-party social media platforms (Facebook, Google, YouTube, Twitter, etc.) may be integrated into our website. By visiting our website, data may be automatically transmitted to third parties via these plugins. If the user is logged into the third-party network at the same time, the visit to this website may be associated with their network account. Globomedica has no influence on the way in which this data is transferred or knowledge of the scope of the data transmitted, which is why Globomedica refers customers to the privacy policies of the respective third-party providers and excludes all responsibility and liability in connection with the plugins of these third-party providers.

7. Web tracking

Our webpages use Google Analytics, a web analysis service of Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses cookies that facilitate an analysis of the use of our website. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website is anonymised, transmitted to a Google server in the USA and stored there. Thanks to the anonymisation, this data cannot be assigned to a specific person. Google will use this information to analyse your use of the website, compile reports on user activities and provide services associated with the use of the website and the Internet. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law or if third parties process this data on behalf of Google. The legal basis is Art. 6, para. 1, sentence 1(f) of the EU General Data Protection Regulation and Art. 13(1) of the FADP.

You can prevent Google from collecting your data and processing the data collected by cookies and relating to your use of the website (including your IP address) by downloading and installing the relevant browser plugin.

Google is certified under the Privacy Shield Agreement and hereby guarantees to adhere to European data protection law.

Further information about data processing carried out by Google can be found in Google's relevant Privacy Policy.

8. Google Maps

On our webpages, we use a plugin from the Internet service Google Maps. The operator of Google Maps is Google Inc. By using Google Maps on our website, information about the use of this website (incl. IP address) is transmitted to a Google server in the USA and is also stored there. We have no knowledge of the exact content of the data transmitted, nor of how it is used by Google. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law or if third parties process this data on behalf of Google. If you deactivate Javascript in your browser, you prevent Google Maps from working. This however means that you cannot use any map displays on our website. By using Google Maps, you are agreeing to the collection and processing of the information described by Google Inc. Art 6, para. 1, sentence 1(f) of the GDPR. You can find out more about the data protection regulations and terms and conditions of use for Google Maps in the Google Maps/Google Earth Terms of Use.

9. Data transfer

Globomedica can pass on personal data within Globomedica for processing and enlist third parties for order processing. They are subject to the same strict data protection regulations.

10. Your rights

You have the following rights against us with regard to your personal data:

- Right of access,
- Right to rectification or erasure,
- Right to restriction of processing,
- Right to object to processing

If the data processing is based on your consent, you can withdraw this for the future at any time without having to give a reason. Withdrawals are to be directed to qualitaet@globomedica.ch. In order to process your enquiries about exercising your rights, it may be necessary for you to disclose your identity so that we can clearly identify you.

In Switzerland, the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority does not exist. For the application of the GDPR, there is a right to lodge a complaint with the responsible data protection supervisory authority.

11. Data security

To protect your data, we have implemented numerous technical and organisational measures in order to ensure the most comprehensive protection of the personal data processed via this website. Communication via e-mail, fax, mobile phone or Internet applications involves risks such as the possibility of access to the content of the communication, its alteration or loss. Globomedica accepts no liability for this.
